

Reflections on the Holocaust and the Role of the Justice System

“Could this happen again?”

“What lessons can we learn from the Holocaust?”

“Are there safeguards in the American legal system to prevent such an event from occurring?”

Join Arizona Supreme Court Chief Justice Rebecca Berch, Dr. William Meinecke of the United State Holocaust Memorial Museum, ASU Professor David Kader, and Yavapai County Attorney Sheila Polk for a morning of discussion that explores how the justice system failed Germany before and during WWII. The program will use short videos to place the historical events in context and examine Hitler’s rise to power, followed by presentations by distinguished presenters.
